The Powers of Trades Unions. Recently the Taff Vale Railway Company proceeded against the Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants, claiming £28,0.0 for damages rustained owing to the strike of 1900. A verdict was returned for the plaintiffs, and the assessment of damages was postponed.

The Analgamated Society of Railway Servants has now decided not to appeal against the verdict, but to support any other union wishing to appeal.

Mr Richard Bell, M.P., the secretary of the society, reported that the society's damages and costs would amount to £50,000. Mr Bell deprecated the carelessness of ordinary members of the society in electing irresponsible orators to the executive committee instead of mon of grit, who would rigidly administer the rules. Ireland.

Jan. 6 -Lord Castletown approves of the proposal of the Dublin Daily Independent that a non-political conference should be held to promote the material development of Ireland. Jan. 7 .- It is estimated that if the proposals'submitted by Lord Dunraven's conforence for the settlement of the land question in Ireland are carried out they will involve the "tate in an absolute mint"

.000,000,000. Jan. 8.—The Irish Landlord's Convention, reserving the right to offer certain criticisms, has approved of the conference held under the presidency of Lord Dunraven, and reports that the scheme dawn up by the convention for the settlement of the land question is worthy of the Government's serious consideration in connection with other recommendations which have heen made. Mr T. Healy, M.P. (Nationalist) trusts that the Government, the landlords, and the conservatives will recognise the moderation of the landlords' convention, and that it will be wise to clinch the bargain by legis-

Miscellaneous. Thirty degrees of frost were registered in Scotland on Wednesday; and the weather has been very severe throughout Great Britain and on the Continent. Forty thousand fishermen of Brittany have lost their occupation owing to the disappearance of the sardines, and great distress prevails. Francisco Martillera, the famous bullfighter, slipped in the course of a fight at Juarez Mexico. in the presence of 5000 poople and the bull gored him to death-

Russia a Scythe. Jan. 8 .- It is stated in official circles in Paris that in the event of Russia that protesting against the claim of Great Britain that her warships should be allowed to enter the Dardanelle, M. Delause, the French Minister for Foreign Affairs, will support France's ally (Russia), according as the clauses of the Dual Alliance cover the antingency It is further reported that France considers he observance of treaties such as those relating to the Dardanelles subserviant to the interest of the Allies, and that there is nothing to compel intervention to secure their observance. It is expected that Italy and Austria will support Great Britain in regard to the Dardanelles, and that France will remain neutral. Much indignation has been expressed in Great Britain at Germany's refusal to uphold the Treaty of Paris.

TO PREVENT CROUP,

DEGIN in time. The first symptom is hourseness, this is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough, which is easily recognized and will never be forgotten by one who has heard it. The time to act is when the child first becomes hourse. If Cham-252 berlain's Cough Remedy is freely given, all tendency to croup will soon disappear. Even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. There is no danger in given this remedy as it contains THE Undersigned have received instruc-tions to Sell by Public Auction, nothing injurious. It always cures and cures quickly. MAKES THE MAN. A competent stomach means vigour, vitality, health, for by digestion alone can food be transformed into blood, brain, muscle, wasted tissues repaired, decay arrested and life sustained. Imperfect digestion (indigestion) upsets the whole economy of life. It makes good food poison, breeds dolts, laggards, hobbling rheumatics, nerve racking pains. Seigel's Syrup ensures digestion, dispels disease, produces health. Backed by 34 years unbroken success in 16 countries. "Two years ago I contracted indi-gestion and had it pretty badly, says Mr. Geo, Matthews, 93. Bourke St., Sydney, N.S.W. "I sufficed from severe pains in the stomach, sleep lessness and vomiting. I lost flesh and strength rapidly and could not work nearly so well as previously. My wile induced me to try Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup. The first bottle relieved me wonderfully and before the second was emptied I was quite cured and as "right as rain." July 1st, 1902. TONIS THE STOMACH.

FOR NURSING ZEAL.

For zeal and devotion in providing for and nursing sick and wounded during the trouble at Tientein, Mrs Crowlio was presented with the Royal Red Cross by His Excellency Sir Henry A. Blake, at Government House, yesterday afternoon, in presence of a numerous company, including representatives of the naval and military

His Excellency, in making the presentation, said-Mrs Crowlie, I have asked for your presence to day that I may have the great pleasure of handing to you the decoration richly earned by you during the most trying experiences of the siege of Tientsin in 1900. Finding yourself in the settlement, you volunteered: your services in the most beneficent of all duties, the alleviation of suffering. After the return of Admiral Sir Edward Seymour's expedition you took entire nursing charge, under Dr Macaamara, of H.M.S. Endymion; of i hospital with 57 sick and wounded men, and for four weeks you worked alone, day and night, not only in the ordinery duty of nursing, but also doing your-elf the necessary cooking. While others less capable were living in cellars, and the enomy's shells were being rained upon the town, the hospital itself being partially destroyed by shellfire you gave evidence of the highest qualities of our race-courage, devotion, and constancy. This was splendid service. and, sad as the fmemory must be to you of brave men whose dying moments were soothed by your tender care, yet that memory must retain also the elements of comfort and sweetness in the consciousness of the self-imposed duty of mercy fearlessly and gallantly performed. To-day are assembled here the representaives of every rank in the sister services, who fought and suffered side by side in that trying time, and in whose name I thank we for all your loving kindne is to their brothers in arms in sorrow and suffer ing, to which such ample testimony has been borne by Captain Bayley, of the Aurora Doctor Machamura, and others. In recognition of your valuable service the King has conferred upon you the decoration of the Royal Red Cross, and no distinction has ever been more gallantly carned. Testeem it a high honour to be the medium of conreceiving it, and in the name of all present I heartily wish you many happy years in which to wear it. (Applause). In response to the request of His Excellency, three cheers were given by the Company for the recipient of the cross.

PUNJOM MINING CO., LIMITED.

The following report will be presented to the Shareholders at the sixth ordinary general meeting, to be held at the office of the company, No. 13, Beaconsfield Arcade, Hongkong, on Tuesday, the 27th inst., at

Gentlemen,-The Directors have now to submit to you their report on the working of the Company and a Statement of Account for the year ended 31st Decem-

The work done during the past year on the Concession has been considerable, details of which are given in the appended Company's Mining Manager, and it may hopeful tone, as to future results. Financially, for the period under review, the increase in the debit balance has been only $36,597.12, as against $79,050.15 in the last report.

There is also substantial ground for hoping that, with vigorous prosecution of prospecting work during the current year, coupled with unabated energy in opening up the goldfield at Swah, the development of the recent discovery of a large quantity of gold-bearing stone at Bukit Kalampong, and the inaugural work of exploitation in the Tin-land, will not only restore confidence generally, but will at the same time be productive of continuous and profitable milling operations. The Mill has worked satisfactorily, put ting through a small trial crushing of 60 tons in March, another of 20 tons in June, and commenced running on day shifts, from the 15th August, up to the 15th December, chiefly on surface stuff, for a yield of 530 ozs. 7 dwts. of smelted gold, equivalent of 4 dwts. per ton of ore milled and about 4 tons of concentrates were also saved by the Wilfley Concentrator, from 209 tons of the mineralized ore crushed.

The Mining Staff has been strengthened by the engagement in Australia of an Amalgamator and a Prospector; the former arrived at the Mines on the 12th January, and the latter passed through Hongkong on the 23rd idem.

The health of the Camp has been fairly

INCREASE OF CAPITAL. A private meeting of shareholders was convense for the 23rd of October, 1902, to discuss the financial position of the Company and prospects for the future, at which it was agreed to propose an increase of the Capital of the Company to the extent of $60,000 by making a call of One dollar per share on each of the 60,000 Ordinary Shares, fifty (50 cents of which to be paid on or before the 9th day of February, 1903 and the remainder to be called up, if necessary, as the Board may determine. traordinary Meeting was held on the 11th Movember, 1902, when a special resolution to the foregoing effect was passed upanimously, and on the 27th idem the resolution was unanimously confirmed.

In accordance with the Articles of Association, Mr R. C. Wilcox and Mr Thomas Howard rotire from the Board, but offer themselves for re-election.

The Accounts have been audited by Mr. A. R. Lowe, c.a., and the Board recom mend him for re-election. R. CHATTERTON WILCOX, Chairman.

From remote antiquity, the genius of this people has been exercised in a school where 'most of sterling worth' is taught. The passing centuries have seen an ever-accumulating stock of knowledge packed into maxims, and these in due course, as Mark Twain would say, 'gilded' not in spots but alf over evenly and artistically.

Thus it comes to pass that the zealous student of Chinese, whether written or spoken, is constantly lighting upon sentences that instantaneously stimulate or affect the mind, that 'strike home,' and, penetrating deeply, are retained firmly.

If at certain moments and in certain moods the student of Chinese Proverbs is inclined to chafe at the obscurity that attonds on excessive brevity, let him rememverying to you this Royal Red Coss as evidence of His Majesty's appreciation of your good work. I congratulate you upon in keeping the attention awake and exercising the mind by the labour of investiga- history, meaning and present-day apotheg-

The work before us is full of sound in structions, and gives, in the most pleasing way, clear insight into Chinese character.

Here, we have-Quotations or adaptations of quotations from the chinese Classics, Lines or Couplets in a poetical form, Antithetical couplets, Proverbs which contain allusions to historical, semi-historical or mythical persons and events.

Proverbs relating to specific places or districts and to persons or events of merely ocal importance, Puns and other linguistic diversions.

Miscellaneous Proverbs. The reading of this book with a Chinese teacher should produce on the latter an effect analogous to the pouring in of water to set the pump agoing, and we have long held the opinion that a pedagogue out of whom such books as this will not draw stores of quotation and reference of legend and tradition, proverbs and couplets, should take a second place in the estimation of the Western student. Before leaving Dr Smith and turning our attention to Mr Stevens. we beg that space may be accorded to one of many choice footnotes which compose part of the *related and unrelated matter. The inference from this footnote is that in the view of the Chinese Government the man who perpetrates a particular kind o pun will de more than pick a pocket. He is a bad subject prepared to 'wade through slaughter to a throne.' What would be In accordance with this decision, an Ex- thought, says Dr Smith, of an act of Parliament prohibiting any resident of Middle sex or Kent from building 'an ice house,' m. the ground that the King of England lives in 'a nice house' and would tolerate no

The collection is a fine piece of work, and many readers who saw the bulk these Proverbs for the first time twenty years ago in the pages of the Chinese Re corder will, we think, be glad to have this revised edition of the book. The loss in the Siege of Peking of a larger unpublished compilation by the same indefatigable writer is to be deplored.

The title of Mr Stevens' book is not, we think, happily chosen. Sententious instructive brevity is the soul of an Apothegm, and as for its body should it not be fathered upon an individual the more distinguished the better as-e.g. festina lente-upon Augustus' Finte surviv upon Solon, and 'What's done can't he helped ' upon Jacob Faithful's father ! Judged by this test, most of the sayings collected by Mr Stevens are not apothegms. Nor are they, save in a few instances, in any proper sense Cantonese. If the Canton 'man in the street' had been more in evidence thoughout its pages, this little book, useful as a pointer in the region of Chinese manners and customs, might have been less so in the domain of dialect. It may be of advantage to students if, dealing with the first twelve pages only, and taking our illustrations almost at random, we seek to show what might, could and should be done with Mr Stevens' book. On page 11. 至止 is translated by, 'best stop ' many the best stop here,' and explained as 'Two characters written or printed on a slip of paper and pasted over the doorway or on the walls of a house on the last day of the old year.'

True ; but why and what is the origin, . matical significance of the phrase? The As respects Dr Smith's collection reference is to the + classic, and to sentence 在止於至善 'To rest in

(b) On the shrines of the doorway 'God who brings wealth.' May riches (the highest excellence) come to stop here i.e. aspersion which argued nescience in certain | not 'take" to themselves wings and fly

Dr Smith's highest praise is that like (c) And on private dwellings it is an Confucius he is a 'transmitter and not a elegant and classical way of saying 'No maker.' He is, however, a veritable Peter | admittance except on business' Stranger mind creative and style epigramulatic, excellence '-please stop outside. 'Thus

The phrase is, in fact, a pun-facility guistic straw to tickle the ear, and the custom alluded to is a pointer in the direction of a rich vein of folklore which will repay investigation. Nearly every wellinformed Chinaman can adduce parallel instances. We will be content with one. About two or three miles from Tung Kun City is a group of graves in which lie the hones of those who, for long years, have been 'unwest, unhonoured and unsung. Every year, in the minth month, come crowds of women to a Goddess of Mercy temple in the vicinity of the 'White-bone tombs. They worship at the temple, and then steal off quietly to the graves where they also worship, and when no one is looking pick up the lucky stone which, carried home, will bring numerous and flourishing progeny. Here the idea is that the spirits of the nameless dead, appeased by the unwonted offering made to them, will requite the favour done at their 'White-Bone graves.

The note on 桑基圍要人做底, page 6, scarcely does justice to the Chinese embankment builders. What is now meant by the phrase is :- If constructive work is to be solid and permanent, let an honest man be set to do it-Aye from the very foundations. As to the old-time superstition which doubtless still lingers, it meant that if a man or woman die on or near the job it will be well done, for the spirit of the deceased will watch over the work.

打地氣 page 3, is commented upon the character signifying ice (FK Ping) is cannot afford even the twopenny rope; identical in sound with the character for | he sleeps in the open, and is in a fair way soldier (F Ping), so that it might be a to be charged with the heinous crime of source of uneasiness to a Government which | having no 'visible means of subsistence.' is in perpetual dread of rebellions to hear Call him a 'shelterless vagabond,' and wo
